EASY VICTORY

Umpires-Emslie and Conway,

AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, NEW YORK, May 4.—By superior work with the stick in times of need the Highlanders took the lead from the Athletics this afternoon and won with hands down. The final score was 6 to 2.

The defeat of Philadelphia was partly due to the forced retirement of Bender from the bix in the fifth inning. The high Indian was so angered at one of flurst's decisions that he threw his glove to the ground. In hesphall of the stick in times of need the Highlanders took the lead from the Athletics this afternoon and won with hands down. The final score was 6 to 2.
